convenience.

We note that Running Point is set to be released on February 27, 2025, just ten days from now. Once released, the series will have been distributed to millions of households irreparably tarnishing our client's brand.

The similarities between Running Point's "Waves" and Pepperdine's Waves are undeniable. Reputational harm can be extremely damaging and permanent.

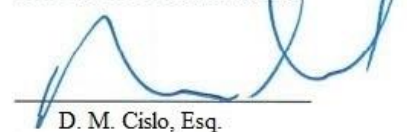

Pepperdine University reiterates its demand that you immediately cease use of the Waves' name and likeness for the show Running Point, and that you do not release the series with the Waves name or logo. If the series is released as planned, the damage to the University will be significant and irreparable. Pepperdine University does not want any affiliation and/or association with the show Running Point.

If these issues are not resolved before release, the University will take all appropriate legal actions to protect its interests. We understand that an attorney at Warner Brothers has been in contact with our client in recent days, but none of those conversations have resolved our demand that you immediately cease the use of our trademarks. Please contact me immediately to address these matters.

All of our client's customary rights are reserved.

Very truly yours,

CISLO & THOMAS LLP

D. M. Cislo, Esq.
